CACO Qualification

To qualify as a CACO, you must be:

- An E7 or above with at least 2 years of active-duty service.
- An E6 may qualify with the Commanding Officer's (CO's) permission.

Requirements for CACO Students

- Obtain and review the CACO Student Manual and the PCR User Guide.
- Register for the three Casualty Assistance trainings available in JKO (Joint Knowledge Online).
- Attend CACO Training, which requires a minimum of 8 hours.
- Complete the JKO trainings within 2 weeks after attending CACO Training.

Certification Process

Once you have sent your JKO certificates to Heidi, you will receive your CACO Certificate.

Casualty Assistance Program

Reference Overview:

- REF 1: DoD Instruction 1300.18: Department of Defense Casualty Instruction.
- REF 2: MILPERSMAN 1770 Series. PERS-00C owns the Navy's Casualty policy
- REF 3: CNICINST1770.2B - CNIC Mandates and funds the CACO Program.
- REF 4: COMNAVREGNWINST1770.1F – Region works with CACOs and Commands.

Regions Across Navy Worldwide:

- Train CACOs.
- Assign CACOs.
- Assist Next of Kin (NOK) via CACOs.
- Support Commands via Command Representatives (CACO trained individual).

Casualty Process and Support

- Commands: Initiates the casualty process with a Personal Casualty Report (PCR) per MILPERSMAN 1770-030 via DCIPS. Time: within 4 hours of being apprised of the death.
- Regions: Act on PCR directions and assign CACOs.
- CACOs: Work with regions to ensure NOK receive all benefits then turnover to Navy Gold Star.
- Command Representatives: Collaborate with Region to fulfill Command responsibilities.
- Case Duration: Two to Six weeks depending on the type of NOK being assisted.
- Navy Gold Star: Takes over NOK care after all monetary benefits are provided.
- Commands must report when members are diagnosed with a terminal illness or have been admitted to the hospital, example: Motorcycle Accident. These are SI or VSI cases.
- Only ACDU deaths and DUSTWUN cases require a NOK notification via uniformed CACOs as directed by Region.
